India International Bullion Exchange IFSC Limited (IIBX) successfully completes its Capital Raising Round by infusion of additional INR 100 crores by its promoter India International Bullion Holding IFSC Limited (IIBH)

Gandhinagar, September 19, 2024

India International Bullion Exchange IFSC Limited (IIBX), the India's first International Bullion Exchange, announces the successful completion of its capital raising. Its promoter India International Bullion Holding IFSC Limited (IIBH) has infused an additional capital of INR 100 Crores in IIBX. This significant capital infusion is evidence of the confidence in IIBX reposed by IIBH, which is a consortium of India's leading Market Infrastructure Institutions, i.e., CDSL, INDIA INX, INDIA ICC (India INX and India ICC are subsidiaries of BSE Limited), MCX, NSDL and NSE. With this round of capital infusion, the paid-up capital of IIBX has increased to INR 215 crores.

IIBX is grateful for the continued support and confidence shown by the consortium members, its regulator IFSCA, market participants and all the stake holders. The extensive experience and expertise of the consortium members in setting up Market Infrastructure Institutions are invaluable to IIBX. IIBX believes that the continued involvement of consortium members shall play a crucial role in driving its growth and success as IIBX continues to build a robust world class Bullion Exchange.

IIBX is located at GIFT IFSC, Gandhinagar, Gujarat, India and is regulated by International Financial Services Centres Authority (IFSCA). IIBX is established to provide a transparent electronic trading platform to promote bullion trading, hedging and development of Bullion financial products for domestic and international Bullion market participants.
